PHILLIPS SUMMER SCHOOL – WORK EXPERIENCE PROGRAMME (JUNE–AUGUST)

London

Looking to gain real-world experience this summer?

Interested in the creative and commercial workings of an international auction house?

Struggling to secure valid work experience in the competitive world of business?

Our newly launching Phillips Summer School offers short work experience placements across a range of professional departments, including Legal, HR, Data Analytics, Strategy, Finance, and specialist teams.

This is a structured programme designed to give you meaningful insight into the workplace not just observation, but hands-on exposure, guided learning, and the chance to build skills that will set you apart.

This is an unpaid, short-term educational placement focused on learning and development. Reasonable expenses reimbursed.
