

PHILLIPS

SHIPPING AND ART STORAGE NOTICE

All works will be transferred to our fine art storage facility in Long Island City, NY where free storage will be provided for all purchases for the 30 days following the date of the sale. If a purchased work is not collected within this 30-day period, buyers will be charged storage charges of $10.00 per lot, per day. Additional charges may apply to oversized lots. The property will be available to collect when we have received full payment of its purchase price, plus any applicable taxes and resale royalty payout, and you have paid all outstanding amounts due to Phillips or any of our affiliated companies, including any storage and and/or loss or damage fees. In order to retrieve your property, we kindly ask that all payments are settled and that you present government-issued identification upon collection. Payments should be made immediately following the sale in US Dollars cash (up to $5,000), or wire transfer.

Please note that the packing of all works will be opened so that they may be inspected prior to release. Shippers or agents should bring appropriate packing material when collecting goods on behalf of clients. Please give us at least 24-hours' notice of your intention to collect your lots.

IMPORTANT SALES TAX NOTICE

For purchased works, if the property is collected in New York by the buyer or the buyer's designee (including any private carrier) for subsequent transport out of state, Phillips may be required by law to collect New York sales tax, regardless of the lot's ultimate destination. Please contact the Shipping Department with any questions.
