SPECIALIST, JEWELLERY, JAPAN

Tokyo

Acting as a Specialist based in Tokyo, this position will be responsible for business getting for the Jewellery department across sales locations depending on the type of property/collection sourced for sale. The specialist is also responsible for selling departmental sales by developing a network of collectors and dealers, as well as assisting with selling auctions worldwide.

Phillips values a workforce with a wide variety of experiences, backgrounds and skills, so we encourage you to apply even if you do not meet all of the qualifications.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Source and evaluate property for potential inclusion in Jewellery sales, working collaboratively with specialists, executives, and cross-departmental colleagues to set and approve estimates and sales terms for works to be offered in order to realise auctions with the highest levels of connoisseurship and profitability.
 - Assist in producing original content for catalogue essays, entries and footnotes. Assist, as requested, with all aspects of catalogue production locally and internationally.
 - Assist in developing a long term sourcing strategy for Phillips with a focus on building a short, mid and long term pipeline of property.
 - Assist with major collection valuations and proposals for consignments, working with other senior members of the Specialist team to position Phillips as a premier platform from which to sell jewellery.
 - Take responsibility for selling the departmental sales, working with colleagues to focus their clients on specific works of interest and to brainstorm possible sales strategies.
 - Liaise with Client Development and fellow specialists to target buyers for all lots in the sales, and create further specialized selling plans for the sales as possible.
 - Participate actively in presale views worldwide and other selling-exhibitions, as discussed with your manager on a case by case basis, with a focus on face-to-face client contact, to promote and sell the auctions.
 - Cultivate networks among collectors, dealers, curators and others in order to develop relationships and maintain best-in-class knowledge of the jewellery market in order to cross-market all selling categories.
 - Attend local and regional jewellery fairs and industry events to represent Phillips.
 - Participate in telephone bidding with clients during auctions.
 - Perform other duties as requested.

Professional Skills and Experience

- 8+ years or experience performing similar duties in an auction house or retailer, preferred
 - Deep academic and market knowledge of jewellery with the ability to carry on eloquently in verbal as well as written communications to a wide variety of audiences
 - Established client relations and networking skills - especially in Japan

Education and Training

- Associated Jewellery qualifications, required
 - Language skills in Japanese and English, required

Personal Attributes

- Driven and entrepreneurial with a proven ability to initiate business and track record of success.
 - Ability to work professionally and collaboratively with all other areas within the business.
 - Obtain high standard of integrity and ability to handle confidential information discreetly and responsibly.
 - Proactive with excellent project management and organizational skills.
 - Ability to operate with grace under pressure while delivering excellent work product.
